Amanda Atkinson joined Hunt & Coombs Solicitors in 2023. Originally from the North-East of England, Amanda moved to the Cambridgeshire area in 2011 where she has worked for leading law firms in Cambridge and St Neots. Although she left it to later in her career to qualify, Amanda has worked within the legal profession since leaving school over 30 years ago.

Experienced in all areas of conveyancing, Amanda is friendly and approachable and is passionate about providing clients with a positive experience in what can be an extremely stressful journey. Amanda believes that good communication is key to the smooth running of a transaction, not just with the client, but also with estate agents and other professionals within the chain.

Past clients have praised Amanda for providing a "faultless and friendly service" and going "above and beyond at every opportunity".
