Annabel Harding is a solicitor in the Wills, Trusts and Probate department, having joined Hunt & Coombs in January 2026.

Annabel achieved her law degree from the University of Sheffield. She undertook her legal training with a regional firm in Northamptonshire, where she qualified as a solicitor in 2025 and practised in Contentious Trusts & Probate.

Since joining the firm, Annabel has moved into non-contentious private client work, advising on the preparation of Wills, estate planning, lasting powers of attorney, administration of estates and trusts.

She is committed to providing clear, practical guidance with a sensitive and client-focused approach.

Interests

Outside of work, Annabel enjoys spending time with friends and family, travelling and exploring the outdoors with her dog!
