Fiona Prince grew up in the St Neots area and was educated locally. She gained an LLB (Hons) degree from the University of Northumbria and stayed on to complete her Law Society Finals. She trained with a Hertfordshire firm and qualified as a solicitor in 1994, joining the private client team on qualification. She continued to work for the same firm eventually becoming a partner in 2007. In 2012, she took a career break, but returned in 2017 to her previous firm as a consultant. She moved to Hunt & Coombs in January 2018 and she is based in the St Neots office.

Fiona practices in all areas of Wills, Probate and Trusts Law and is currently a member of the Society of Trusts and Estate Practitioners as well as a Member (pending accreditation) of The Association of Lifetime Lawyers.
