

Hannah Byatt BA (Hons)

✉	hannah.byatt@hcsolicitors.co.uk
☎	01480 702208

Hannah Byatt qualified as a solicitor in 2007 after completing her degree at Anglia Ruskin University in Cambridge and obtaining a Post Graduate Diploma in Law at De Montfort University in Leicester. Hannah was awarded the Hawkins Russel Jones Family Law prize and a Distinction in Family Law on her Legal Practice Course.

In October 2011, Hannah joined a legal firm in Cambridgeshire as the Head of Family, before joining Hunt & Coombs in September 2018 as an Associate. Hannah was promoted to Partner in 2021 and now heads up the St Neots office. She specialises in family work and supports her clients through divorces and children matters.

In 2020, Hannah passed the core assessment as part of the Resolution Specialist Accreditation Scheme – in the top three of her cohort.

In 2022, Hannah was recognised as a 'Next Generation Partner' in the Legal 500 for her work in Family Law.

Expertise

Family Law Services & Divorce

Divorce & Dissolution of a Civil Partnership

Accreditations

Education

- Legal Practice Course at University of Hertfordshire (2005)
- Postgraduate Diploma in Law at De Montfort University (Leicester) (2002)
- BA (Hons) Health, Welfare and Social Policy at Anglia Ruskin University (Cambridge) (2001)

Qualifications

- Resolution Specialist Accreditation Scheme (2020)
- Solicitor (2007)