Hazel joined Hunt & Coombs from Futter Chapman in October 2024. She has practiced law since 1988, and she set up her own practice in Peterborough in 1994, having previously worked in Greater Manchester. Hazel has been a member of the Law Society's Children Panel since 1994. Hazel was then a partner in Futter Chapman Family Law Specialists from January 2007 until October 2024. Hazel represents children's guardians, as well as parents and others who are involved in care proceedings. She is a highly regarded children's solicitor and has been involved in many high profile cases, both locally and nationally.
