Jo Wood is a Senior Conveyancing Executive and joined Hunt & Coombs in July 2025. She has been dealing with conveyancing transactions in Peterborough, Stamford and the surrounding areas for over 35 years. Jo is highly respected and has a wealth of experience in dealing with the sale and purchase of all types of properties including Grade II Listed buildings, properties with septic tank drainage, properties served by private roads and flying freeholds.

She is thorough and professional and prides herself on the high level of service she gives. Jo understands that each transaction is unique and each individual client has different priorities and needs. She works hard to ensure that her clients understand the process and any issues that arise are fully explained.

Jo's areas of expertise are:

- Property sales and purchases;
- Listed buildings;
- Septic tank drainage;
- Private roads;
- Flying freeholds; and
- Unregistered titles.
