Kashif Khan is a duty solicitor in the Criminal Department. He joined Hunt & Coombs Solicitors in 2012 and qualified as a solicitor in 2014 before becoming an associate in 2021. He is a dedicated member of the Criminal Department.

Kashif specialises in representing a broad range of criminal investigations. He has extensive experience representing client's interviews with the police, often leading to successful outcomes for his clients at an early stage of a case.

He also has a track record of successfully negotiating out of court settlements and discontinuances with prosecuting authorities, and enjoys finding solutions in challenging situations, including where individuals have previously received incorrect legal advice.

Kashif has particular expertise in matters involving youth crime, often working with the Youth Offending Service to divert young individuals away from the criminal justice system.

In 2016 Kashif was awarded the Peterborough Law Society Young lawyer of the Year Award. The award acknowledges his dedication to providing exceptional legal advice at all stages during the criminal procedure.

In the 2025 Legal 500 guide, Kashif has been recognised as a Leading Associate.
