Luke Edwards joined Hunt & Coombs as a Solicitor, in March 2023 having spent two years working as a Solicitor in the Dispute Resolution Department of a firm with offices across Norfolk and Cambridgeshire.

Luke obtained his LLB (Hons) degree at Swansea University and the Legal Practice Course at The University of Law in Surrey before undertaking his training contract at a regional firm in the South East.

Luke has experience acting for, and advising businesses and individuals on a range of civil practice matters, including disputes pertaining to:

- breach of contract;
- landlord and tenant; and
- boundary, neighbour and property ownership disputes.

As well as conducting a number of matters issued in the courts and obtaining successful judgments for his clients, Luke has experience in Alternative Dispute Resolution (notably Mediation).

Luke takes a clear and proactive approach to any dispute, whilst ensuring that his clients are kept fully apprised throughout.
