Melita Matusaityte is a solicitor in the Commercial team at Hunt & Coombs, having joined in May 2026.

Melita graduated from Birmingham City University with a law degree in 2020 and completed her LPC in 2022. She began her legal career as a junior paralegal before undertaking her training contract with a regional firm in Northamptonshire, where she qualified as a solicitor in 2026.

During her training, Melita gained broad experience in residential conveyancing, advising on the sale and purchase of freehold and leasehold properties, shared ownership transactions and new-build properties. She also developed experience in Dispute Resolution, assisting with a range of civil and commercial matters.

Melita now specialises in Commercial Property and Corporate Law. Her experience includes commercial leases, the sale and purchase of land and commercial property, shareholder and cross-option agreements and the sale and acquisition of companies.

Melita places a strong emphasis on providing a high level of client service and building positive, long-term relationships with clients. She understands that every client and transaction is different and aims to provide clear, practical and commercial focused advice tailored to each client's individual needs.

Interests

Outside of work, Melita enjoys going to the gym, playing padel and travelling the world.
