Sally Power joined Hunt & Coombs in 2020 as an Associate in the Wills, Trusts and Probate Team in Oundle. Sally qualified as a solicitor in 1997 after obtaining an LLB (Hons) degree from Reading University and her LPC from the College of Law in Guildford.

Sally was educated locally but built her career in the South-West and then the Thames Valley. During that time she had a break from legal practice culminating in her setting up her own well-regarded legal recruitment business for ten years. Sally then went back to legal work joining at a boutique private client firm in Oxfordshire, The Burnside Partnership. She then moved back to Cambridgeshire where she joined Beacon Wealth Legal in St Neots as the Head of Private Client across the firm's four offices.

Sally is experienced in working with people from a wide range of backgrounds including partners, directors, business owners, chief executive officers and private individuals - and has worked for a diverse client base including large companies, SME's, owner managed businesses, start-ups, not for profit organisations and private individuals.

Sally is a qualified Trust & Estates Practitioner (TEP), a full member of the Society for Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) and a member of the Law Society Private Client Section. She specialises in all aspects of private client law (Wills, probate, estate planning, Lasting Powers of Attorney and Court of Protection matters).
