Sallyann Short qualified as a solicitor in 2006 and subsequently headed up private client teams in Cambridge for two well-known regional law firms. She joined Hunt & Coombs Solicitors in April 2020. Prior to qualifying as a solicitor, Sallyann was an Independent Financial Adviser and holds the Diploma in Financial Services.

She advises high net worth individuals, non-domiciled individuals, farmers, business owners and their families or estates on all aspects of estate planning, creation of trusts, estate administration, Wills and Lasting Powers of Attorney. Sallyann sees her role as an adviser who helps you protect you; your family and your assets.

Sallyann provides training to other professionals in both financial services and accountancy practices. She has also given talks to various groups explaining Wills, Trusts and Lasting Powers of Attorney.

Sallyann continues to be a recommended lawyer in the Legal 500.
